

TAPATAN

In countries all over the world, children play a game much like tic-tac-toe, called Tapitan.

Each player has 3 pieces. Players take turns placing their pieces on the dots. After a player has placed all 3 of her pieces, she continues by moving a piece from its initial location to an adjacent location. Jumping over pieces is not allowed. Whoever gets 3 in a row first wins.