

Cookie Booth Expectations

- If not provided by the store, troops will bring their own small table to use at the sale
- At least 2 adults, but no more than 3, will be present at each booth sale. (Smaller locations - i.e. Fareway Downtown- should limit this to 2. Feel free to work in shifts, but take care not to have overlap chaos at the "changing of the guard".)
- At least 2 girls, but no more than 5 girls will be present at each booth sale. (Smaller locations - i.e. Fareway Downtown- should limit this to lower numbers. Feel free to work in shifts, but take care not to have overlap chaos at the "changing of the guard".)
- Girls and adults are expected to be polite and respectful at all times
- Girls are expected to wear a GS sash, vest, or other items to identify themselves as a member of Girl Scouts
- No food or drinks will be consumed by the girls or adults at a booth sale, other than water
- Girls will be expected to be able to indicate what the funds earned from cookie sales will be used for
- Troops will provide their own cash box and start up change
- Troops will clean up after their sale, leaving the area in the same or better condition than it was upon arrival, placing items such as empty cardboard cases in the location indicated by the manager in charge
